Roswell, Fulton County, Georgia

Owner: Dun Feed & Grocery Company, Marietta, Georgia.

Date of Erection: Approximately 1859.

Architect - Builder: Messrs. Jim Stewart, Aaron Butler and J. A. Gunter.

Present Condition: Fair.

Number of Stories: One.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation and exterior walls. Wood floors. Metal roof.

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: This is oldest church in Roswell. Mrs. Ada Paden Lyon writes: - "In 1858 a sum of money was raised by Methodists for new church. A lot was donated by Hon. Barrington King for the church. A building committee was appointed. The brick building was put up with temporary roof, seats and pulpits. It was then used as a place of worship. In 1864 the church was greatly damaged by the Federal Army but still used as a place of worship. In 1920 the old church was sold to Mr. C. B. Dorris. Now owned by Dun Feed and Grocery Company, Marietta, Georgia., and used as a warehouse."
